

Interested in homeownership?

Congratulations on matching to an renowned institution. Adam and I are here to ease you through this important life decision. We are readily available to answer your questions about the area and expedite your real estate transactions. We enjoy working with 1st time buyers and will walk you through the process; including directing you to great lenders that provide physician-based loans. We are very familiar with the intense pressures of residency since Amanda has been a nurse at UM since 1999 and is a UM graduate (GO BLUE!). Please check out our website that contains additional information regarding steps for buying your home: www.corwinrealestate.com. We look forward to meeting with you to discuss your desires, goals and plans.

We'll take care of you while you take care of your patients.
