If you are wondering

- * How much is your home worth now?
- * How long it will take to sell?
- * When would you need to move out?
- * How would you get the home ready to sell?

I would like to answer your questions and put my 20 years of real estate experience, knowledge of the local market, and strong negotiation skills to work for your benefit.

The complexity of today's current market, rapidly changing home values, and increased regulations. Call for an experienced counselor to assist you throughout the sales process. As your Seller's agent and advocate I would offer you comprehensive high quality service preparing, marketing, and selling your home. I will provide facts based on actual market conditions to help you make good decisions. You can count on my commitment to give you personal attention and honest advice.
